

Practical information on ECHER workshop

Faculty of Philosophy, Belgrade, 8-9.9.2012

ECHER workshop will take place at the Faculty of Philosophy (entrance from Plato). It is the location L2 on the map which you download here.

If there is no one at the entrance, there will be a note on the door, indicating how to get to the room where the workshop takes place.

The workshop starts on Saturday 15h. The detailed programme of the workshop can be found here.

Please note that coffee breaks and the lunch on Sunday are covered by the organisers.

For the dinner celebrating the 1st birthday and official foundation of ECHER (Saturday evening, 19h) will be at "Smokvica" restaurant (Kralja Petra 73), which is a walking distance from the venue. The dinner is not covered by the organisers and we have booked it for 25-30 people from 19-21h. The price is 15 EUR or 1800 RSD and it would be the best that the money is collected beforehand (during ECHER for example), so as to avoid confusion when we arrive. You can pay in either Euros or Dinars. We can meet at 18.30 in front of the Faculty of Philosophy and go to the restaurant together.

The lunch on Sunday will include sandwiches (delivered at the venue) and we have taken into account what you indicated as dietary requirements when registering.

Unfortunately, there will be no wi-fi there, but there should be networks available around the place.
